

The Great Backyard Bird Count

When: Sunday, February 16, 9:30am- 1pm

Where: Grand Caribe Shoreline Park
598 Grand Caribe Causeway, Coronado, CA
Look for the Library's green pop-up tent!

Who: Everyone is welcome. Bring a smartphone, water, and sunscreen to participate. Teens can earn volunteer hours.

How: Observe as many birds as possible! The data you collect is shared with researchers to better monitor and protect birds around the world. Get help identifying birds with a naturalist from the San Diego Bird Alliance and plant (provided) native plants to help restore their habitat.
